

Final Conference of the ALTRA project

In-Prison Support and Therapy for Victims and Perpetrators of Gender Violence

5 February 2008

Central European University. Gellner Room, 1st Floor. 9 Nádor utca, 1051 Budapest

09.00 - 09.20	Registration and welcome
09.20 - 09.45	Presentation of the ALTRA project Origins of the project, objectives, phases, results Laia Tomàs, SURT
09.45 - 10.15	Results of the research on EU-wide in-prison programs for women who have suffered gender violence and for men who have committed violence against women Kay Wegner and Klaus-Peter David, PACKHAUS
10.15 - 10.30	Questions
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 - 12.00	Pilot program experience in Catalan Penitentiary Centres with women who have suffered gender violence and for men who have committed violence against women Main reflections and conclusions for the design and implementation for new programs Laia Tomàs, SURT
12.00 - 12.15	Questions
12.15 - 13.15	Experience of the pilot socio-educational programmes implemented in Hungarian prisons on gender-based violence Positive prospects of in-prison programmes with a human rights based approach for women who have suffered gender-based violence Fruzsina Benkő and Mária Grosch, MONA Barriers to efforts for change in the programme for men who have committed violence against women Gábor Kuszíng and Balázs Sutka, MONA
13.15 - 13.30	Questions
13.30 - 13.45	To conclude Summing up and next steps Mar Camarasa, SURT

Coordinated by:

